

Director & Leadership Dynamics

You want to inspire your staff and reach a common goal. Duties such as planning, delegating and organising, resolving problems and making decisions place high demands on your role as a superior.

To successfully lead a team of different personality types, you need more than just technical expertise – you need strong social skills.

Goals

- You consider your role as a superior and discern your responsibilities
- You are versed in different styles and techniques of personnel management and have field-proven leadership tools at hand
- You are aware of your personal strengths and potentials in dealing with people
- You understand your employees and are able to inspire motivation to achieve company goals
- You conduct performance reviews and team meetings with equanimity

Contents

- A superior's main duties, clarification of roles
- Integrating, motivating and leading employees
- Communication, feedback
- Setting goals, planning, organising, delegating
- Success factors of winning teams
- Your personal DISC profile: know your strengths and capabilities as a leader

Methodology

This training is an interactive 2-day workshop with countless real-life examples, including your own experiences. We work with hands-on role plays, prepare and conduct discussions, give feedback and evaluate your performances with video recordings.

Target Group

- Group, team, department and project leaders
- Employees preparing for a leadership role in the near future

Scope

- Dates as per calendar
- 7 Participants
- Duration: 2 days (14 hours)
- Trainer: Erik Leibundgut
- PMP-certified participants can claim 14 PDUs

Pricing

CHF 1,800 excl. VAT, subject to change

Included in the price are documentation, video material, lunch, and break refreshments.

Course description Course date Course time Day/s Location Course language Comment

Currently there are no events.